WHIMSICAL & LAUGH-OUT-LOUD ART & PHOTOGRAPHY

Irene Niehorster and Wacky Ink Studios Bring Her Charming Illustrations and Beautiful Photography to Kansas City!

Breathtaking photographic images and whimsical illustrations will highlight a one day exhibition and sale of Irene Niehorster's art at the Kenilworth Clubhouse on Saturday, August 27, from 2pm – 7pm.

Although a Graphic Designer by profession, she has a strong background in fine arts. She specializes in photography, polymer clay sculptures, and painted-illustrated character designs and figures for animation. The work of this international artist has been exhibited in galleries and institutions in the United States, Mexico and Europe.

Many pieces of her art have been donated to charitable organizations, both here and in California. The Humane Society, Friends of Recovery, The Ironwoods Park Amphitheater Project, Bottles of Hope, Beads of Courage, Hearts for Heroes, and the Cancer Institute at St. Lukes Hospital, to name just a few.

Ms. Niehorster has a B.F.A. in Communication Design from Otis/Parsons College of Art and Design and a B.S. in Media Arts and Animation from the Art Institute of California-San Diego. She has professional and specialized certificates in marketing and business management, as well as for multimedia development and web publishing from UCSD.
